

Flask Website Documentation

1. Introduction

Project Overview

The Flask Website was developed as part of the Food Ordering Behaviour Analysis project to provide a simple and interactive web interface for presenting the Tableau Dashboard and Tableau Story. The website enables users to navigate through different sections and explore the project in a user-friendly manner.

2. Technologies Used

Technology Purpose

Python	Backend Programming
Flask	Web Framework
HTML5	Web Page Structure
CSS3	Styling
Bootstrap 5	Responsive Design
Tableau Public	Dashboard & Story Integration

3. Website Features

- Responsive Home Page
- About Project Section
- Embedded Tableau Dashboard

- Embedded Tableau Story
- Developer Section
- Contact Section
- Smooth Scrolling
- Navigation Bar
- Hero Section Animation

4. Website Screenshots

Home Page

Description:

The Home Page provides an attractive introduction to the project with a navigation bar and quick access to the Tableau Dashboard.

About Project

Description:

Displays the project objectives, technologies used, and a brief overview of the Food Ordering Behaviour Analysis project.

Tableau Dashboard

Description:

Shows the interactive Tableau Dashboard containing KPIs, customer behaviour analysis, cuisine preferences, and revenue insights.

Tableau Story

Description:

Displays the Tableau Story that explains the complete analysis through multiple story points.

Developer Section

Description:

Contains the developer's information and project details.

Contact Section

Description:

Provides contact details and useful links for communication.

5. Conclusion

The Flask Website successfully integrates Tableau visualizations into a responsive web application, providing users with an interactive and organized platform to explore the Food Ordering Behaviour Analysis project.